Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or their parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification they are following, Oakmoor School encourages the candidate to try to resolve this informally in the first instance. A concern or complaint should be made in person, by writing to the examinations officer via exams@oakmoor.hants.sch.uk

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or their parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

- A formal complaint should be submitted to exams@oakmoor.hants.sch.uk by completing a complaints and appeals form
- Forms are available from the Examinations Department via exams@oakmoor.hants.sch.uk
- Completed forms should be returned to the Examinations Officer, who will forward ALL documentation to the Head of Centre
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 10 calendar days

How a formal complaint is investigated

- The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion
- The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant within 3 working weeks

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

- Any appeal must be submitted to exams@oakmoor.hants.sch.uk in writing by again completing a complaints and appeals form
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 10 calendar days
- The appeal will be referred to Chair of Governors (or a special Committee of the Governing body) for consideration
- It will be the responsibility of The Chair of Governors (or Committee) to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in due course
